

Richard Trudgen of Why Warriors Presents

BRIDGING THE GAP

A training seminar to build capacity in areas relating to health, economic, legal and social cohesion.

2011 Dates

Darwin 24 & 25 October

Sydney 27 & 28 October

Hosted by Richard Trudgen, author of acclaimed book Why Warriors Lie Down and Die in partnership with Witiyana Marika, a founding member of internationally renowned Yothu Yindi band, and Dianne Gondarra, Yolŋu language consultant and presenter on Yolŋu Radio.

Richard Trudgen explores the reasons Indigenous people and other ethnic minorities are suffering, and provides the communication and cross-cultural skills essential to working with Indigenous and minority groups. You will walk away with the knowledge that you can create change. By using a model developed with the Yolŋu people of Arnhem Land, a model that allows the people to build their future and enables you to have more effective interactions with Indigenous people; you can...

be part of the solution; know how together, we can help close the gap.
